Our Presenters will relate the 1/30 of the required Qur'anic reading to the life of Prophet Muhammad (BPUH); how did he use the revelations of the Qur'an to elevate his character, increase his faith and compassion, better his relationship with his wives, his companions, the community and his enemies. How did he handle his struggles, the death of his loved ones, war and Prophethood. All reports, stories and references will be supported by the Qur'an.

The 1st day of Ramadan is projected to begin after Maghrib on Tuesday, May 15, 2018 which would make the 1st morning of fasting on Wednesday, May 16th, if the moon is sighted. If the moon is not sighted, we will begin accordingly. Please call your local Masjid for the official start date.
